

Medical Leadership and Quality Improvement

FMLM Northern Ireland Regional Conference
14 November 2014, Queens University, Belfast

Join us for a pre-conference reception in the magnificent Great Hall of Queens University Belfast on the evening of 13 November from 19:00.

Join colleagues and special guests for a drinks reception and dinner in this historic venue.

14 November - Riddell Hall Queens University Belfast

Timing	Morning Programme
09:00 – 09:30	Registration & Refreshments
09:30 – 09:45	Welcome and opening remarks Dr Michael McBride, Chief Medical Officer
09:45 – 10:30	Setting the standards for professionalising medical leadership and management Mr Peter Lees, Chief Executive and Medical Director, FMLM Dr Robin Cordell, Deputy Medical Director, FMLM
10:30 – 11:30	Workshop One – Delegates to select one workshop (description below) 1 – QI Capability for Medical Students Dr David Hill, Dr Niall Leonard and Dr Nigel Hart An introduction to the concept of Quality Improvement and its relevance to healthcare today and practical advice regarding getting involved with QI projects. 2 – Leadership for Doctors in training Dr Claire Lundy Hear why medical leadership is important to you as a trainee, what training is available, how trainees have become involved and ask trainees, consultants, hospital managers and NIMDTA educators questions about how you can get involved. Run by NIMDTA in association with the Belfast Trust. 3 – Professionalising Standards of Medical Leadership and Management Dr Robin Cordell and Ms Kirsten Armit, Chief Operating Officer, FMLM An opportunity to contribute to the development of professional standards of medical leadership and offer advice on accreditation and how organisations can support doctors to develop and maintain these standards. 4 – Human Factors for Doctors Dr Richard Corry Delegates will explore the definition of human factors, understand the relevance of human factors to healthcare and gain practical tips on how to improve non-technical performance.
11:30 – 11:45	Refreshment break
11:45 – 12:45	Workshop Two – Delegates to select one workshop (description below) 1 – QI Capability for Doctors in training Dr David Hill, Dr Niall Leonard and Dr Nigel Hart An interactive workshop focusing on equipping doctors in training with the skills to run QI projects.

	2 – Leadership for Doctors  Mr Will Young, Dr Iain McDougall, Dr Claire Loughrey and Dr Margaret O'Brian  Focusing on Integrated Leadership in Northern Ireland with the opportunity to discuss innovations at the interface of primary and secondary care. Develop your skills and knowledge to allow you to provide integrated care to your patients. 3 – Professionalising Standards of Medical Leadership and Management  Dr Robin Cordell and Ms Kirsten Armit  An opportunity to contribute to the development of professional standards of medical leadership and offer advice on accreditation and how organisations can support doctors to develop and maintain these standards. 4 – Human Factors for Medical Students  Dr Richard Corry  Delegates will explore the definition of human factors, understand the relevance of human factors to healthcare and gain practical tips on how to improve non-technical performance
12.45 – 14:15	Networking lunch, Poster Judging and Exhibition  Drop in sessions will be running through lunch, join us for: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The impact of mentoring drop-in session</li> <li>• Doctors using appraisal and revalidation to support their development (General Medical Council)</li> </ul>
14.15 – 15.15	Workshop Three – Delegates to select one workshop (description below) 1 –QI Capability for Consultants, GP's and SAS doctors  Dr David Hill, Dr Niall Leonard and Dr Nigel Hart  An interactive workshop focusing on QI projects in primary and secondary care settings. 2 –Leadership for Medical Students  Dr Melissa McCullough, Dr Pascal McKeown  This workshop is being run by The HSC Leadership Centre and QUB.  It will introduce the concept of leadership to medical students through a fun and interactive activity. 3 – Mentoring  Dr Robin Cordell  An interactive session for members at any stage of their career, who are interested in developing the leadership and management aspects of their practice, or helping others to do so through mentoring. 4 – Human Factors for Doctors in training  Dr Richard Corry  Delegates will explore the definition of human factors, understand the relevance of human factors to healthcare and gain practical tips on how to improve non-technical performance.
15.15 – 15.45	Quality Improvement and Medical Leadership; Can you have one without the other?  Dr Gavin Lavery, HSC Safety Forum
15:45 – 16:00	Refreshment break
16.00 – 16:30	It's all about quality ....right?  Dr Brian Robson – Executive Clinical Director; Healthcare Improvement Scotland
16:30 – 17:15	Panel Debate  Dr Gavin Lavery, Dr Brian Robson, Dr Peter Lees, Dr Robin Cordell, Dr Dónal O'Mathúna
17:15 – 17:30	Presentation of Prizes and Closing Remarks  Mr Peter Lees, Chief Executive and Medical Director, FMLM