

0900-0930	In pursuit of professional excellence An introduction to the day
0930-0945	Movement break After the introduction to the day delegates will have a option of attending one of the five workshop options. The sessions will be held in small groups and focussed on practical solutions to the challenges you will be facing in these areas.
0945 - 1215	Influencing and negotiating: Understanding politics Catherine Eden, Managing Director, Eden and Partners	Understanding healthcare finance Chris Calkin, Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Management Accountants and Past President of Healthcare Financial Management Association (HFMA)	Managing complexity and uncertainty Helen Bevan, Chief Transformation Officer, Horizons, NHS England	Leading for quality and safety: what does it take? Peter Lachman, CEO, ISQua	Supporting colleagues in difficulty Ian Curran, Vice Dean of Education at Duke-National University of Singapore Graduate Medical School.
1215 - 1315	Lunch After lunch the workshops will repeat so delegates can choose a second option to attend.
1315 - 1545	Influencing and negotiating: Understanding politics Catherine Eden, Managing Director, Eden and Partners	Understanding healthcare finance Chris Calkin, Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Management Accountants and Past President of Healthcare Financial Management Association (HFMA)	Managing complexity and uncertainty Helen Bevan, Chief Transformation Officer, Horizons, NHS England	Leading for quality and safety: what does it take? Peter Lachman, CEO, ISQua	Supporting colleagues in difficulty Ian Curran, Vice Dean of Education at Duke-National University of Singapore Graduate Medical School.
1545 - 1600	Movement break
1600 - 1700	Closing session Facilitated networking				